With a genuine love for the art of hip hop/rap, he started writing his own music at the age of 12 and recording by the age of 15. J-Lyrix felt that writing more about his reality and what goes on in his everyday life would be the best place to pull his songs and inspiration from. This lead him to pursue a career as a prominent Hip-Hop artist.

As of September 2015, J-Lyrix has been signed to an independent record label by the name of "Julie's Dream Music Group along with a few other artist. This label is currently owned and managed by a well known major artist by the name of Jaheim. Along with Jaheim promoting his final major album for universal records, J-Lyrix is looking forward to having his first project with the label ready by the beginning of 2016.

December 2011, he dropped his debut mix tape titled, "The Sample" which was released online and it can be downloaded free via datpiff.com, Sound Cloud and Reverb Nation, and it showcases his smooth flows, slick metaphors and catchy hooks. With very little promotion of the mix tape it has slowly been creating an online buzz. The single, "Ride dat Wave" is considered a YouTube hit with well over 100k views and close to 1k likes and ongoing. He is currently working on a video for this single.

Close to the middle of 2013, J-Lyrix will be releasing another mix tape called, "The 3rd World Connection". With his world wide notoriety, he connected with a talented producer from Turkey who engineered the beats for his music. Being a part of a group, "Team High Campaign" (THC), consisting of three other members, J-Lyrix plans on bringing his group and music to the forefront of the industry. He is currently featured on Coast to Coast mix tapes hosted by local and industry artist as well as speaking on a live radio station "Red Channel 23".

J-Lyrix is a young aspiring, hard driven and new talent that's getting ready to dominate the Hip Hop industry, both on a local and international level. Keep a look out for this artist, his music and ambition will continue to grow in the industry and inspire most of us to know that with hard work and faith, you can accomplish your dreams.

"Rap is something I always had a passion to do, but what really set that spark in me was when 50 cent dropped his album, "Get Rich or Die Trying". With his aggression, passion and attitude towards his art, I was encouraged to make my own dreams come true and take my music and talent to another level"

J-Lyrix is the artist but Team High is the crew (THC). Enjoy....
